IN LOVE WITH A FANTASY?
DR. HENRY CLOUD

OCTOBER 3, 2005, MNS-716

---

Absurd! you say—how could anyone be in love with a fantasy? It's not as ridiculous as it sounds, however. Many people create a mental composite of the perfect partner and won't settle for anything less. They go on a quest, trying to find the fantasy partner, not realizing that this "person" is really only a figment of the imagination. How can you know, when searching for a soul mate, if you are chasing after a fantasy rather than holding out for a real person? Don't miss this fun expose at Solutions! We will not only expose the fantasy, we will help you turn yours into a real live person! MNS-716
