Ecclesiastes 4:9-12 (NIV)

Two are better than one, because they have a good return for their work: If one falls down, his friend can help him up. But pity the man who falls and has no one to help him up! Also, if two lie down together, they will keep warm. But how can one keep warm alone? Though one may be overpowered, two can defend themselves. A cord of three strands is not quickly broken.

Resources:

I found the Ultimate experience to be one of the greatest life changing experiences of my life. I have been to two other growth experience workshops, but found this one to be the most helpful and complete. It touched all parts of my life. Henry and John are doing a great job in demonstrating how our entire emotional and spiritual lives are built on Christ's teachings.

-John Schock: CEO, Financial Management Solutions (Pasadena, MD)

The invaluable incorporation of resources, teaching, sharing, processing, and the quality of all those committed to bringing forth wealth and treasure in us was priceless. I shall always remember that week as a major "turning point", a time where my perceptions of life, myself, and my work were forever changed.

-Patty: Real Estate Broker and Architect (Tustin, CA)

Since going to the Ultimate Leadership workshop, I now realize that getting connected with someone is a kind OF soul fuel that raises me up to another level--which positions me to better solve life's problems.

-Pastor John Sherk (Middlebury, IN)
